

Resources for 2020 Movement

I. Campaign and Policy Work

- Color of Change: <https://colorofchange.org>
 - “Formed in 2005 in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, Color of Change ‘designs campaigns powerful enough to end practices that unfairly hold Black people back, and champion solutions that moves all people forward.’” *
- Ella Baker Center for Human Rights: <https://ellabakercenter.org>
 - “Based in Oakland, it’s named after civil rights activist Ella Baker, and founded in 1996 by Van Jones. The center organizes ‘black, brown and low-income people to shift resources away from prisons and punishment, and towards opportunities that make communities safe, healthy and strong.’” *

II. Protesting

- Black Earth Farms: <https://www.blackearthfarms.com>
 - “Providing food and support to people organizing bail and medical resources for protesters.” *
- ACLU Protester’s Guide: A Protester's Guide
- Paper: <https://www.papermag.com>
 - General support of protesters in every city.

III. Representation/Bail Out

- National Lawyers Guild, San Francisco: <https://nlgsf.org>
 - “The San Francisco NLG provides legal support for those protesting and organizing against injustice. The organization has legal observers that document police violence to help people navigate through the criminal legal justice system.” *
- Anti-Police Terror Project: <https://www.antipoliceterrorproject.org/>
 - “The Anti-Police Terror Project (AFTP) is a ‘is a Black-led, multi-racial, intergenerational coalition that seeks to build a replicable and sustainable model to eradicate police terror in communities of color.’ The group supports families ‘surviving police terror in their fight for justice, documenting police abuses and connecting impacted families and community members with resources, legal referrals, and opportunities for healing.” *

- People’s Breakfast Oakland: <https://www.hellablackpod.com/pbo>
 - “This West Oakland grassroots organization serves the local homeless community with essential resources like food, clothing and hygiene packs to ‘over 5000 of Oakland residents’. The organization is currently raising money to bail out black protesters, as well as, providing legal support.” *

IV. Education

- We Re-Member: <https://www.weremember2019.org>
 - “This non-profit was founded by Bay Area natives, Cairo and Natasha, provides education about tackling bias and discrimination by providing education about the Middle Passage and the impact of enslavement.” *
- Know Your Rights Campaign: <https://www.knowyourrightscamp.com>
 - “Funded by ex-49ers quarterback Colin Kaepernick in 2016, Know Your Rights Camp, is a free campaign to raise awareness on self-empowerment and interacting with law enforcement.” *
- Anti-Police Terror Project: First Responder’s Guide-
<https://www.antipoliceterrorproject.org/resources>

*These resources were found at: <https://sanfrancisco.cbslocal.com/2020/06/03/supporting-the-fight-for-social-and-racial-injustice-list-of-national-local-resources/?fbclid=IwAR31hSsUQmjTA3ojuTzEKtOjqycoLEcrGcv7SK4uV4clkJdLprXhFiB5KjE#.XthOFypdpts.facebook>.

